

Extract

of a letter from Sidney S. Callender to George J. Durham

"I take the liberty of enclosing you for collection several accounts against the different Departments at Austin, as also against private citizens, which I wish you to use your utmost-diligence in having settled, and I hereby fully authorize and empower you, to re-
-cept the same in my name, and all other ac-counts, that I may hereafter transmit to you, as I do now constitute and appoint you my true and lawful Agent at the city of Austin".

I do hereby solemnly swear, the above to be a true and faithful extract from a letter re-ceived by me from Sidney S. Callender dated at Richmond on the 12th August 1840.

George J. Durham
